DECLARATION UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.132

I, Darrell R. Anderson, declare:

1. I am the same Darrell R. Anderson named as an inventor in the U.S. patent application identified above. I am also the same Darrell R. Anderson listed as the first author of the abstract entitled "Immunoreactivity and effector function associated with a chimeric anti-CD20 antibody," corresponding to a presentation at the Second IBC International Conference on Antibody Engineering, San Diego, 16-18 December 1991.
2. I am familiar with the disclosure of U.S. patent application serial nos. 07/978,891, filed 13 November 1992; 08/149,099, filed 3 November 1993; 08/921,060, filed 29 August 1997; and 09/911,703, filed 25 July 2001; and with the content of the Anderson et al. meeting abstract mentioned above.
3. Robert E. McCoobery and Syamal Raychaudhuri, who are listed as co-authors of the Anderson et al. abstract, performed the work reported in the abstract under my direction and supervision. To the extent that the subject matter of the abstract corresponds to subject matter in the disclosure of the U.S. patent applications enumerated in the paragraph above, co-authors McCoobery and Raychaudhuri did not contribute to the conception of any invention disclosed in those patent applications.

I further declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. section 1001, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.

Darrell R. Anderson
